

ROWAN TREE TRUST

...tapping a limitless resource...

The Trust's goal is to lighten the burdens of life by tapping a limitless resource ... human creative energy.

The Trust supports volunteers and professionals worldwide to assist children at risk, adults at the margin, elderly people in institutions, children and teenagers who are bullied and stigmatised.

The Trust has a staff team who train professionals and volunteers in the arts therapies: play, drama, music, painting, storytelling; all those activities which are associated with human creative expression.

Past Projects

The Rowan Tree Trust supported special projects in Romania (attachment with mothers and newborns) and Kazakhstan, (Storytelling with Orphans) and international training programmes in creative arts therapies, (Romania, Malaysia, Kazakhstan and the UK). The staff provided 'Creative Care' training for carers in institutions in Romania. The Trust also supported a new initiative in Malaysia for NASOM (National Autistic Society of Malaysia) for teacher training and special projects. It contributed to professional training of staff and volunteers for WCCL in Pune, India.

Current Projects

'Outside the Box Experience': The Trust is supporting Creative Care for carers, and elderly and frail residents, especially those with dementia. The programme is endorsed by Dame Judi Dench and Professor Mooli Lahad.

The Rowan Tree Trust is sponsoring the Railway Boy's programme in Romania and storytelling with elderly people and in primary schools.

Our appreciation and thanks to the the Newby Educational Trust (The Felicity Meshoulam Fund), Wells Cathedral School and Sarah Watts for generous sponsorship and donations.
