

The Rowan Centre's External Workshop and Training Programme

The Rowan Centre offers courses to Universities, NGOs, Hospital and Schools both in the UK and overseas.

We are an experienced staff team that can offer programmes in:

Play Therapy, Dramatherapy, Supervision, Creative Groupwork and Storytelling. Courses can be for one/two days or a long weekend. Longer courses are also possible.

The Team: Professor Sue Jennings, Play and Dramatherapist, Supervisor and Storyteller; Alison Chown, Play Therapist; Jude Kidd, Dramatherapist and Supervisor; Larry Galloway, Play Therapist; Penny MacFarlane, Dramatherapist; Jayne Gouge, Play Therapist and Counsellor; Sharon Jacksties, Storyteller.

Fees: are calculated on an individual basis, depending on duration and travel length. On average, in UK and Europe, courses are £450 per 6 hour day, including preparation time, plus travel and accommodation where needed. Course facilitators provide notes and reading recommendations.

BOOKING CONDITIONS: please note that all fees are payable in advance, one month before the start of the course. Invoices will be sent after booking confirmation. There are no refunds within the month prior to the course unless the staff member is unable to fulfil the booking, (for example sudden ill health), when a full refund will be made.
